MARRY IN LOUISVILLE.

Miss Annie E. May, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jacob May, of this city, was married in Louisville Thursday evening at 7:30 o'clock to Mr. G. W. Roth, of Indianapolis, Ind. The wedding took place at the residence of E. H. Zirkel, at 1416 West Chestnut street, the ceremony being performed by the Rev. Dr. Anderson, of the Presbyterian church. The following intimate friends and relatives were present at the wedding: Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Zirkel and family, Mr. and Mrs. Owen May, Mrs. Clayton Crosson, and Mrs. Ike Meyer and Mrs. Henry Solbrig, of this city.

Miss May is wellknown here and will be missed, especially in church and musical circles. She had been organist at the Presbyterian church for a number of years, and left a fine class of twenty music pupils. Mr. Roth travels for a large brewing concern in Indianapolis and is the inventor and manufacturer of the Roth gas engine, many of which are in use in Indiana. A number of years ago he was a fireman for the Louisville, Henderson & St. Louis railroad and has many acquaintances here.

Mr. and Mrs. Roth left Friday for Morgantown, Ind., to reside.

A Startling Test.

To save a life, Dr. T. G. Merritt, of No. Mehogany, Pa., made a startling test, resulting in a wonderful cure. He writes, "a patient was attacked with violent hemorrhages, caused by ulceration of the stomach. I had often found Electric Bitters excellent for acute stomach and liver troubles so I prescribed them. The patient gained from the first, and has not had an attack in 14 months." Electric Bitters are positively guaranteed for Dyspepsia, Indigestion, Constipation and Kidney troubles. Try them. Only 50c at Short & Haynes.

Pythians to Build Home.

The Grand Lodge of Kentucky, Knights of Pythias, will build a Widows' and Orphans' Home in one of the cities in Kentucky, and Louisville Pythians have already begun a fight to secure its location there.

K. P. CONVENTION.

The convention of the third district, Knights of Pythias, of Kentucky, was held Friday night, at the hall of the local lodge, Breckencridge No. 61, the occasion being the first of its kind in this city. Extensive preparations were made for the entertainment of the visiting knights, the interior and exterior of the lodge room, and the business houses being decorated with the flags and colors of the order. The special features of the evening were an enjoyable banquet, a number of excellent speeches on Pythianism and the initiation of four new members, who took the first and second degrees, making about twenty additions the lodge has had during the past two months.

The speeches by the visiting knights: Past Supreme Vice Chancellor Popenney, of St. Paul, Minn., Grand Chancellor J. G. Covington, of Bowling Green, Grand Keeper of Records and Seal J. W. Carter, of Owensboro; and Messrs. W. G. Archer, C. T. Hardin, H. Q. Gans, J. W. Taylor, Jas. L. Leach, Geo. H. Cox, F. N. Barna, & W. Bedford, Thos. R. Morton and R. H. Pennington, of Star Lodge No. 19, of Owensboro. The death of Dr. Conway, a prominent K. P., of Owensboro, prevented a much larger body of knights from that city being present.

To accommodate those who are partial to the use of atomizers in applying liquids into the nasal passages for catarrhal troubles, the proprietors prepare Ely's Liquid Cream Balm. Prices including the spraying tube is 75 cents. Druggists or by mail. The liquid embodies the medicinal properties of the solid preparation. Cream Balm is quickly absorbed by the membrane and does not dry up the secretions out changes them to a natural and healthy character. Ely Brothers, 56 Warren St., N. Y.

DELIGHTS AUDIENCE.

Ralph Bingham delighted a large audience at O'Leary's Hall Monday night with one of his inimitable entertainments, under the auspices of the Ladies' Aid Society of the M. E. church, South. As on his two former appearances in this city, Mr. Bingham gave a varied entertainment, consisting of songs, recitations, impersonations and selections on the violin. All of his impersonations were humorous and made a distinct hit. His story of Bill Jenkins, the "boss" trader, was especially good, but Will Hay's dialect story of the negro excursion to the picnic, which Mr. Bingham's audiences never tire of hearing, was the most enjoyed part of the entire program. With matchless power and sweetness Mr. Bingham played Sousa's "Invincible Eagle" and selections from Cavaleria Rusticana and Il Travolto.

Mr. Bingham was pleasantly introduced to the audience by Rev. P. L. Kintz, of the M. E. church, South, and his singing and playing was accompanied on the organ by Miss Mannie White.

To Organize Local Hive.

Mrs. Mary Lee Anderson, of Lexington, State Deputy of the Ladies of the Macabees, is in the city to organize a local hive. Mrs. Anderson is at the Duncan House and will remain here several weeks.

Breckencridge's Duty.

A national good roads convention will be held at St. Louis May 6 to 21. Breckencridge county should send at least one delegate.

Wedding Announcements.

Mr. Jas. S. Younger, of this city, and Miss Sue Brashear, of Union Star, will be married at Union Star on June 1. Their wedding will be attended by Mr. Owen L. Brashear, a brother of Miss Brashear, and Miss Rebecca F. Williamson, of Columbia, Tenn., who will be married May 24. The two couples will compose a party to the World's Fair.

E. A. Oelze has had a two-story veranda added to his residence.

NEWS OF THE FARM.

Irrington, Ky., May 3.—(Special.)—George and Tom Lyddan make a specialty of raising the fine Hereford cattle. They have sold five calves under one year old for the neat sum of $181.66 per head. They also shipped recently three Hereford calves, ages ranging from three to five months old, to Giltner Bros., Eminence, Ky., to be inoculated for the Southern trade.

Irrington, Ky., May 3.—(Special.)—Miss Maggie Greenwood wishes to join the crowd of chicken fanciers and comes in with a record breaker in the way of sales. She is very enthusiastic in her work and is thinking of establishing a poultry "plant," when the Barred Plymouth Rock will crow the loudest and cackle the longest. Miss Greenwood states that, from a flock of ninety hens, she sold during the months of March and April, for sitting purposes, at the rate of $3.00 per hundred, 1,975 eggs, her orders coming from Tennessee and many places in Kentucky. Besides this over 200 eggs were used for the home, table and settings. If any one can challenge this it is then he heard from.

Planters Had Stock Farm.

Glendene, Ky., May 2, 1904. Mr. J. D. Babbage, Cloverport, Ky., Dear Sir: We are going to exhibit our 3,500 lb. Polled Durham bull at Hardinsburg on May 9 and 10, the first two days of Circuit Court. This is one of the greatest bulls of the breed and it is worth coming miles to see him.

We have recently added to our herd of Poland Chinas the great show boar, Sansine Perfection, a hog that won four premiums at the last Kentucky State Fair and won at several local fairs in Indiana. We paid $35 for him and he is great a bargain at that price.

We have added to our herd of Short-horns the following heifers: Sycamore Rose 2nd, a show heifer sired by the Imp. Master Archer 149090, champion bull of Kentucky for four years an lawman at the International at Chicago, also a brother of Curremonion Archer, a $5,000 bull that was champion of the United States last year and is considered by some to be the best bull on either continent. Mary Briton 6th, a Scotch-topped young May, sired by Imported Holwell Moonlighter 150704, a Scotch bull bred by Sanders Spencer, of Holyoak Manor, England. Mr. Solomon Colley, of Millersville, O., her breeder, says: "This heifer is a coking good one and should make a great cow. She is b-w-d to an imported bull and is due to calve June 1."

W. R. Moorman & Son.

Represented Breckencridge.

Irrington, Ky., May 3.—(Special.)—Among the fifty-nine candidates that took the thirty-second degree at a recent meeting of the Scottish Rite Masons in Louisville Breckencridge county was represented by C. M. McGlothlin, of Union Star. The Scottish Rite Masons of the state of Kentucky are one of the most progressive organizations in the United States. Their membership of this Rite is now about 1,900.

A Sure Thing.

It is said that nothing is sure except death and taxes, but that is not altogether true. Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption is a sure cure for all lung and throat troubles. Thousands can testify to that. Mrs. C. B. VanMetre of Shepherdstown, W. Va., says "I had a severe case of Bronchitis and for a year tried everything I heard of, but got no relief. One bottle of Dr. King's New Discovery then cured me absolutely." It's infallible for Croup, Whooping Cough, Grip, Pneumonia and Consumption. Try it. It's guaranteed by Short & Haynes, Druggists. Trial bottles free. Reg. size 50c, $1.00.

Pupils in This District.

The census for the Cloverport school district, compiled by Miss Laura Osterfield, shows a total of 980 whites of school age, 169 of these being males and 223 females.

Fight Over a Mule.

Allen Wilson, of Patesville, and John Stunstall, of Breckencridge county, engaged in a fight over a mule at Fordville yesterday. It seems that Stunstall had gone on a note for Wilson for $55 and was forced to pay it. Wilson agreed to let Stunstall have the mule for the note and $5 in cash. Wilson left his home the other day and while he was absent Stunstall went to the barn and took the mule away.

Wilson met Stunstall yesterday in the road. Wilson demanded the mule and upon refusal he proceeded to cut it loose from the wagon. Stunstall secured a club and knocked Wilson down. In the fight which followed Wilson cut Stunstall severely on the wrist with a knife. The mule escaped injury. Wilson went to Fordville and proceeded to get drunk and was arrested.—Saturday's Owensboro Messenger.

All Druggists.

do not hesitate to recommend Kodol Dyspepsia Cure to their friends and customers. Indigestion causes more ill health than anything else. It deranges the stomach, and brings on all manner of disease. Kodol Dyspepsia Cure digests what you eat, cures indigestion, dyspepsia, and all stomach disorders. Kodol is not only a perfect digestant but a tissue building tonic as well. Renewed health, perfect strength and increased vitality follow its use.

Wears Tooth Of His Own Make.

Dr. S. B. Addison was a visitor in town Saturday. The "doctor" has his say of Cloverport: "I have never lived in any town that I liked better than old Cloverport and only wish I could return." The doctor has been following the profession of dentistry for more than twenty years and is working up a good practice at his home town of Webster.

He has become such an artist in his line that when any of his teeth need attention it is useless for him to consult any of his fraternal brethren. He is now wearing an excellent crown on a front tooth done by his own hand and, on examination, one will see that it is the work of a high-class dentist.

To Lead the Singing.

J. M. Ragsdale, a prominent Sunday school singer of Louisville, is in the city to lead the choir during the revival at the M. E. church, South, this week and next week. The meeting is to be conducted by Rev. T. R. Kendall, pastor of Settle Chapel, at Owensboro. Two services will be held each day, at 8 o'clock in the afternoon and at 7:30 in the evening.

Dr. and Mrs. F. L. Lightfoot and Mrs. E. E. Haynes went to Louisville Monday to see the Kentucky Derby.

To Make Red Ink.

Red ink is easily made by amateurs who follow this recipe: Get a one ounce bottle and seal it it is perfectly clean and dry. Place in it one teaspoonful of aqua ammonia, gum arabic the size of two peas, and add six grains of carmine. Fill up the bottle with clear soft water, and after standing a little while it will be fit for use.

An Obstinate Family.

Cholmondeley—I thought you intended to marry Miss Wealthington? Dolmondeley—I thought so, too; but her family objected. Cholmondeley—What did Miss Wealthington say? Dolmondeley—Oh, she's one of the family, you know.

Public School Training for Citizenship.

Edwin G. Cooley, superintendent of the public schools in Chicago, proposes to organize the pupils into a miniature republic and teach them by actual experience their duties as citizens. The national representatives will be elected from the grammar schools, and the national senators from the high schools. State and city governments will be formed in the same way. The Australian ballot system will be used in the elections and the machinery of the national government copied in every detail.

Young women not only will be allowed to vote but will be eligible to election as senators, congressmen and aldermen. In fact the little government will be founded upon the principles of co-education and equal suffrage.

If this plan is carried out, it will supply the missing element in our public school work. Education given by the state should fit the child to take his place in the state as a citizen and to perform the duties of citizenship. The growing corruption of politics shows that so far our public schools have failed in these all important particulars.

Think what it would be to have Prof. Cooley's idea carried out in all our public schools. Think of the uplift politics would receive if every graduate from the grammar school and the high school understood the sacredness of the ballot, and the necessity of using it for the public good. The boys accustomed to seeing girls voting and holding office in the mimic state would not be likely to develop into men opposed to equal rights. The girl accustomed to think of herself as a citizen would never develop into a remonstrant, nor would she placidly accept the legal conditions that class her with idiots, lunatics, criminals and minors. One can hardly over-estimate the good that would result from such training in citizenship and Prof. Cooley's experiment will be watched with interest, especially by those who believe that women are citizens and that they should have the same political rights that men citizens have.

CATS SUCKING BREATH.

As Old Tives' Fable That Has Served a Good Purpose.

Can a cat really suck the breath of a child?

We have always heard that it could. Away back in early childhood we distinctly remember frequent warnings to look out for the cat. Do not allow the cat to get into bed with you, especially to get into bed with the baby, as it is liable to suck the baby's breath, which would cause the baby to die.

Is there any foundation for such a notion as this? We never could discover any real meaning to the belief that a cat can suck the breath of a child. Indeed the sentence is totally unintelligible.

What is meant by sucking the breath? It may be true that the cat, attracted by the breath of a child who had recently been nursing, might attempt to interfere in some manner with the child's mouth. In young cats the impulse to nurse might be excited by the smell of the child's breath. It is hardly possible that the cat might be seized with a desire to bite or to devour the child's lips or tongue, lured on by the smell of milk. We are not in a position to test these possibilities. Maybe they are true.

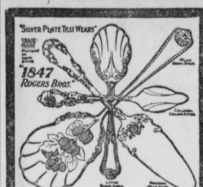

But not any of these suppositions furnish a basis for the statement that the cat is liable to suck the child's breath. We have always heard this statement with a shudder of horror. It seems to convey some word, horrible tragedy that can hardly be imagined. But it is a mere fancy, the origin of which is hard to explain.

Yet we would advise mothers to be careful about leaving the infant with a cat. We do not favor the idea of cats sleeping with children, nor do we favor the practice of children playing with cats, handling them, nuzzling them around the face, fondling them, dressing them up as dolls. It is not good for the cat; it is not good for the child. Neither cats nor dogs ought to be treated in this manner. They are all right in their place, but they are not fit for playthings.

If the supposition that a cat can suck a child's breath has operated as a preventive to mothers allowing their children to play with cats, it has served a very good purpose, but such childish notions are hardly compatible with mature reflection. It is one of the old wives' fables which may have served a good purpose, but it is too ridiculous for repetition. There are other and better reasons why the cat and baby should not be left together than the vague, unintelligible fear that the cat will suck the child's breath—Medical Talk.

ODD BATTLE PLACES.

Men Have Made War on Ice and Under the Earth's Surface.

Battles have been fought in many curious places, ranging from mountain peaks to sewers, from ice fields to desert sands.

At the battle of Monterey, in the Mexican war, the Americans were able to command the streets of the city with their artillery, but they had difficulty in dislodging the Mexicans from the houses; so, the city being built of stone or adobe in solid blocks of houses, the Yankees broke through the walls from one house to another, fighting and driving out the enemy, so that the battle of Monterey was largely fought indoors.

In one of the battles of the wars of William the Silent for the independence of the Netherlands the Spanish ships were frozen in on the Zuyder Zee. The Dutch came out on horseback over the ice and attacked them. This is probably the only battle in which cavalry was ever used directly against ships. Several other combats were fought between navies on the ice in these wars and on one occasion the infantry is said to have worn skates.

The battle of Austerlitz was partly fought on a frozen lake, and when the allies were retreating across it the shot from the French artillery, plunging into the ice and breaking it up, caused the death of thousands of Russians and Austrians.

Of the many underground battles which have taken place in history the fiercest was probably that of the siege of Haarlem in the Dutch wars. The Spaniards mined and the Dutch countermined with equal industry, and before the ground a fierce conflict raged.

When the Versailles troops took Paris after the commune, they chased some of the communist troops to the great sewer of the French capital, where some desperate struggles took place—Washington Post.

THE ANGRY TREE.

Peculiar Antics of This Curiosity of Plant Life.

There is in the wilds of northwestern India a species of the acacia tree which is entitled to be classed as one of the wonders of plant life. It grows to a height of about eight feet and when full grown closes its leaves together in coils each day at sunset and curls its twigs to the shape of pigtails. After the tree has settled itself thus for a night's sleep, if touched the whole thing will flutter as if agitated or impatient at being disturbed. The offender foliage is molested the more violent becomes the shaking of the branches, and at length the tree emits a nauseating odor, which if inhaled for a few moments causes a violent, dizzy headache.

The angry tree, as it has been named, was discovered by travelers, who upon making camp for the night placed one end of a cinch covering over one of the sensitive branches, using it for a support. Immediately the tree began to shake jerkily like a branch. The motion continued, growing more nervous, until at last the cinch covering was thrown to one side. Immediately upon being removed from the ground the tree opened its leaves, its twigs lost their pigtail, and for something over an hour and a half the outraged branches showed their indignation by a series of quakes, which grew weaker as time passed, finally ceasing altogether, when the foliage hung limp and withered. The next morning the tree was placed upright in the ground again, a little water was applied to the roots, and very soon it resumed its normal condition.—Boston Globe.

things in Louisville this week.

Politicians never take the initiative.
They await developments.

If you are a good roads man and want to do something for the cause go to Hardinsburg next Monday, say a good word for the new movement.

There is only one thing lacking at the St. Louis Fair to make it a complete success, and that is the presence of Mrs. Wiggs of the Cabbage Patch. We don't understand how Arthur Ford missed this.

Chairman Allie W. Young has called a meeting of the Democratic State Executive Committee for May 6 at Lexington to fix the date of the state convention to select delegates to the national convention.

If Gov. Taft should happen to be sent to Brandenburg to take command of the Ohio river forces the first thing he would do would be to build a good road from Weldon to that town.
His experience in the Philippines was that good roads did more to civilize that country than any other thing.
The idea of riding over a road like the one from Weldon to Brandenburg
the great metropolis of Meade county, is a disgrace and a shame to any community of civilized people.

Our guessing contest closed last Saturday with a big round up of guesses.
We hope all of our guessers will strike a good prize. One good thing brings on another and those who failed to guess in that contest can have a chance now in a much bigger one.
An event in the history of this country in which every man, woman and child is interested or should be. It is the Presidential election. It comes off the 8th day of November. The nearest guess to the number of total votes cast in that election gets a cash prize of $10,000 second nearest $5,000 third $1,000, and eight special prizes of $500 each for early guesses. It don't cost you a cent extra to guess.
For every dollar paid on subscription entitles you to a guess. Send your $1 and your guess right in. No other paper in this section offers you such a chance for a small fortune.

Haswell Defeated.

At the Republican convention at Shepherdsville Monday J. W. Lewis and H. Frank Troutman were chosen as delegates to the national convention from the Fourth district. Jno. P. Haswell, Jr., of this county, was defeated by a very small majority.

Chas. McCracken was up from Owensboro Sunday.

HARDINSBURG.

Cody's photograph gallery south side courthouse square.

I will make you 2 doz photos for 25c
at Brick Hotel next week—W. J.
Mattingly.

I will be in Hardinsburg at Brick Hotel from May 9 to 14. If you want photographs of any kind give me a call.—W. J. Mattingly.

Fairleigh-Sackett.

Mr. and Mrs. William Sackett announce the engagement of their daughter, Miss H. Estelle Sackett, to Mr. George Du Rollo Fairleigh.

On account of a recent bereavement in the family, the marriage will be very quietly solemnized at the home of the bride, 2430 Third avenue.

It will take place on the evening of June 5 at 9 o'clock, and the only at-tendents will be the maid of honor, Miss Annie Hodgson Long, and the best man, Mr. A. Huston Fairleigh, a brother of the groom.

The ceremony will be performed by the Rev. Dr. Beverly Estlin, rector of St. Paul's Episcopal church.

Mr. Fairleigh is the son of Mr. D.
W. Fairleigh—Tuesday's Courier-Journal.

Mr. Fairleigh is a nephew of Mr.
J. D. Babbage, of this city, and has many acquaintances here.

There is more Catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and until the last few years was supposed to be incurable. For a great many years doctors pronounced it a local disease and prescribed local remedies, and by constant failing to cure with local treatment pronounced it incurable. Science has proven catarrh to be a constitutional disease and therefore requires constitutional treatment.
Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, is the only constitutional cure on the market. It is taken internally in doses from 10 drops to a teaspoonful. It acts directly on the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. They offer one hundred dollars for any case it fails to cure. Send for circulars and testimonials.
Address: F. J. CHENEY & CO., Toledo, Ohio.

pation.

Much Tobacco Delivered.

More tobacco was delivered here last week than during any week this year. The local buyers, Jno. Phelon, J. D. Brashear and R. B. Pierce receiving nearly 400 loads. Mr.
Brashear, alone, received nearly a hundred loads Wednesday.

World's Fair Opens.

The Louisiana Purchase Exposition
at St. Louis was formally opened Saturday with simple ceremonies, and over 200,000 people entered the grounds.

Spring Medicine

There is no other season when good medicine is so much needed as in the Spring.

The blood is impure, weak and impoverished—a condition indicated by pimples and other eruptions on the face and body, by deficient vitality, loss of appetite, lack of strength, and want of animation.

Hood's Sarsaparilla and Pills

Make the blood pure, vigorous and rich, create appetite, give vitality, strength and animation, and cure all eruptions. Have the whole family begin to take them today.

"Hood's Sarsaparilla has been used in our family for some time, and always with good results. Last spring I was all run down and got a bottle of it, and as usual received great benefit." Miss BEULAH BOCK, Stone, Va.

Hood's Sarsaparilla promises to cure and keeps the promise.

PATESVILLE.

Miss Anna Lynch, of near Victoria, was in town Saturday.

Dr. J. C. Bush will be in Hardins-
burg Monday, May 9, for one week.

Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Marlowe will leave very shortly for West Virginia.

Dr. J. C. Bush will be in Hardins-
burg Monday, May 9, for one week.

Meers, Marvin Baker and W. J.
Fawver were in Cloverport Saturday on business.

Rev. Oldham filled his regular appointment at the Baptist church Saturday and Sunday.

Mrs. Thos. Shaw and children have moved into the house with her mother, Mrs. N. Starks, Sr.

Misses Ethie Sypp, Pearl Basham and Thomas Sapp, of Dukes, attended the baptisms here Saturday.

The baptisms last Saturday afternoon was largely attended. There were twelve who were baptised.

M. V. Marlowe, with a party of other men, left Tuesday for Bold Springs Tenn., to work in timber. The people here are looking for them back any day for it is rumored that the timber has already been culled over.

Cured His Mother of Rheumatism.

"My mother has been a sufferer for many years with rheumatism," says W. H. Howard, of Husband, Pa. "At times she was unable to move at all, while at times walking was painful.
I presented her with a bottle of Chamberlain's Pain Balm and after a few applications she declared it was the most wonderful pain reliever she had ever tried, in fact, she is never without it now and is at all times able to walk. An occasional application of Pain Balm keeps away the pain that she was formerly troubled with."

Thinking of Buying a Horse?

If you are thinking of buying a horse I want you to tell me.

The reason I want you to tell me this is because I have horses to sell. If you buy a horse from me you will be satisfied. Horses I sell are just what I say they are.
When you want to buy a horse come to me. I have the kind you want, I believe; if I have not I can get him.

If you have a friend who is thinking of buying a horse send me his name, please.

BANK WORRIES.

How One Clerk Fretted a Whole Year All For Nothing.

An ex-bank official said that during his career in the banking business he had known more than one employee of a bank to get into trouble on account of carelessness in handling money.

One collector, who was a light-hearted fellow, was going along the street in high water season flopping up a twenty dollar piece with his thumb and finger and catching it as it came down. Finally it slipped and fell through a grating on the sidewalk into about two feet of water. He made some efforts to recover it, but finally decided to wait till the water was gone, and then it was found that the coin was also gone. Another time the fellow was coming from the street with $100.00 in twenty dollar pieces in his shoulder. In some way he lost a hold on the sack, and in striking the sidewalk, it burst, and the coins rolled in all directions. A number of cops rushed to his assistance, but he scribbled a large circle around the sack and, waving his arms wildly, ordered everybody to "stand back." He recovered most of the coin, but decided to get out of the banking business.

Another time a Chinaman came into a bank and deposited $200 and took certificate of deposit. The clerk made out the certificate and was preparing to give it to him when he noticed the stub. When he made up his mind at night he was $1,800 short. He saw where the mistake was and tried to hunt up the Chinaman; but although he got a clue, he could never find him, and he remained $1,800 short on the books. He had a notice of the date of the certificate, amount, etc., pasted in his desk and was always on the lookout to catch the certificate as it came in. Just a year from the day the deposit was made the Chinaman walked into the bank and presented the certificate to be cashed. When asked how much he wanted he said all—$200. He had never noticed the mistake in the amount of the certificate, and he has never found it out, and the clerk says he never thought of it in his mind for a whole year all for nothing.—Portland Oregonian.

HOME CIRCLE COLUMN.

If we can put one touch of row sunset into the life of any man or woman, we shall feel that we have worked with God.

A smile of appreciation is worth more than a volume of well rounded sentences of praise—society prattle is cheap, but heart friendship is a rare plant of slow growth. Happy are they who can rear a few.

"Memory is as beautiful as hope and a thousand times more true." Fortunate are they who have a happy childhood, to recall, after they have come out into the world to meet the bitter currents of disappointment that lie in wait for many, who leave the paternal roof to seek home and fortune among strangers.

"Am I my brother's keeper?" How often we hear it said. "Life is greatly what we make it." Is it not true that many are as clay in the hands of the potter? There are natures so completely controlled by environment that they are nearly responsible for their acts, and when they are surrounded by elevating influences, they are a credit to themselves and those allied to them, and when these impressive natures come in contact with those who revel in popular vices, their brother becomes their keeper.

It is a truth, none can refute, that we are all to some extent dependent upon others. Money will buy attention, but it fails to buy happiness and often it is from the humblest sources that we reap our greatest joy. The millionaire will turn from his home of wealth, where he has a surplus of luxury, and stop at the door of an humble cottage to enjoy the smile of a prattling child that has won his heart by its pleasant ways; and as it walks by his side as far as safety will permit he enters its home. As he misses the little hand from his grasp, he recalls those who have passed out of the reach of his loving care, and his soul cries out, "What is home without the children?"

There are friendships of the head, whose currency is thought. For them, too, we return fervent thanks, but family friendships are true friendships of the heart—in these we store our treasures—the love and the faith which become dimmed in daily living; the aspirations which dull, conventional ideas do its best to smother, the best that is in us and in our nearest and dearest. We store it up in those bright days, Victor Hugo's ideal heaven, when the children are little and the parents are young; and, too, in the dark days which shall yet brighten in memory, like clouds in the sunset—the whole checkered way—and we have for our "open sesame" the sadly sweet legend: "Do you remember?"

Thieves and time shall not break through and steal it. It enriches all days—"The last of life for which the first was made;" the days when we and our friend sit beside the embers with white locks, calm eyes and quiet hearts, when the golden thread of life's story is spun; but most of all it is for that divinest day when we sit at last alone, and know that by the vacant place beside us, immortality is provided.

The heart of treating those who are nearest and dearest to us with discourtesy, is one that clouds the sunshine of too many homes. If you are young and looking for your prince, just test his home conduct. Do not be guided in your choice by what a young man is in the parlor; find out what he is in his mother's sitting room. Do not judge him by the way he can tip his hat, but by the way he treats the old, especially his parents. The home where mutual consideration rules is always a happy one. If it be the top of a cheap tenement or an adobe hut on the prairies. There should be a certain respect observed in the most intimate relationship. Wives have no more right to search their husband's pockets than they have to take the same liberty with an acquaintance. We have no more right to rob the baby's bank than to force the receipt of the national bank. We may hurt the feelings of a society acquaintance and there is no great harm done, beyond an estrangement of two people who care but little for each other; but when we stab the fond mother's heart that loves us with a love next in tenderness to heaven's, or wound the sensitive feelings of a brother or a sister, life is not long enough to extract the sting from memory. Love's opportunity will soon vanish forever and out through the sunset of life, the ones we love least and best have down away like birds to a summer land and our words of endearment are thrust back like voices that beat against a wall of rock.

When the toils and cares of the day are over, and the children are at home from school, then comes the most delightful hour to the family circle. The outside world is dismissed, and father and mother and children are together in sweet communion and unbroken trust. There is no vacant chair. There is not a face missing. Death has never visited this home. The hour of retiring comes, and blessed with father's instructions and mother's prayers, the little group retire for the night. May it not be that angels hover over such a home during the silent watches. All homes where the family circle is unbroken, and where each is a home as this with a slight effort on the part of each member of the household.

Although it is a terrible misfortune to lose a home by fire, it is not nearly as bad as losing the happiness of home by the dissipation, unfaithfulness or disgrace of one of the members of the family. We think a home ought to be a type of heaven, a peace of rest and happiness. The happiness of the home is short-lived and sorrows and disappointments come to us all, but if we do our best, and trust in God we believe it will result in good, and we will find more bright days than dark ones. The first essential element in a happy home is mutual love, but this will not last without kindness, patience and forbearance. We think the next most important requisite is system and good housekeeping on the part of wife and mother. We don't believe in a rigid system that sacrifices the comfort and freedom of the family but we think a certain amount of it is necessary to the happiness.

There should be no day in our lives that did not record some act of kindness, some help held out to the needy. One self-denying act or some kind word, or a pleasant glance, has fallen like sunshine or eased an aching heart.

WHAT AILS YOU

The U. S. mail will bring you the best medical advice for the cost of writing materials and stamps.

Many people owe their present good health to the fact that they consulted Dr. Pierce by letter, giving him all possible information about their condition, symptoms, etc., and received in return good medical advice which they followed.

Dr. R. V. Pierce, founder of the Invalids' Friend, the Medical Institute, Buffalo, N. Y. Dr. Pierce by no means confines himself to prescribing his well-known medicines. He tells you in the most common-sense way what ails you, and what you ought to do. What line of treatment should be followed in your particular case, and if your case does not indicate a cure for this proprietary medicine, he tells you plainly and frankly what you need, and the best possible method of improving your health.

Dr. Pierce treats many chronic cases at a distance, through the mail and all you have to do is to write him your symptoms.

"During my ten years of married life I have not had good health," writes Mrs. Mary Stoddard of St. Paul, Minn. "I was all run down, and my husband got me to write to Dr. Pierce. I got an early reply telling me what the trouble was. I could not believe it, but I tried his medicine, and now I feel like a new woman. I don't mind my work and do not feel tired out like I used to. I have taken eight bottles of the Favorite Prescription. It makes one feel well and strong."

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets cure diarrhea and sick headache.

There is no act intended to help another, too small for the Master's notice. It is the conscious attention to what the word calls little things that makes the great beauty and success in life. Little words of kindness, little deeds of charity, little acts of self-denial. A careful watch against little sins and grateful use of little blessings. A patient continuance in well doing. Little encouragement; these things will give warmth to our own hearts and comfort to others. The dew of night does not fall upon bodies that are too slow to impart warmth to others. Those who water others shall themselves be watered. To be happy ourselves, we must live to make others happy. So let us try to be faithful in the least as well as in the little gifts of life, and when our toil is done our life work shall bear fruit in heaven.

When the Sap Rises.

Weak lungs should be careful. Coughs and colds are dangerous. One Minute Cough Cure cures coughs and colds and gives strength to the lungs. Mrs. G. E. Fenner, of Marion Ind., says, "I suffered with a cough until I ran down in weight from 148 to 102 lbs. I tried a number of remedies to no avail until I used One Minute Cough Cure. Four bottles of this wonderful remedy cured me entirely of the cough, strengthened my lungs and restored me to my normal weight, health and strength." Sold by All Druggists.

Congress Spends Big Sums.

The Fifty-eighth Congress adjourned last Thursday afternoon, the House at 2:10 and the Senate at 2 o'clock.

The total appropriations made by this Congress aggregate, according to Mr. Hemenway, $78,574,629. Of this sum $36,801,245 was to pay deficiencies for fiscal years and $50,500,000 is set aside for the application to the sinking fund. This leaves the total appropriation for the expenses of the government for the year of 1905, $98,373,783. The total estimated revenues for this period are $70,472,000, or an excess over appropriations or authorized expenditure of $6,199,274.

Present in Japan.

The foremost student of leprosy of making friends to any Japanese girl unless he is bent upon matrimony. To present her with any sort of a gift, even though it be only a postcard, will be regarded as a proposal of marriage, and to accept the present, though not a word of love or matrimony be passed, is a sign that she accepts you. Galant Americans have got into serious trouble and found it necessary to leave the country at night to escape a binding engagement which they thought less incurred by giving to a maiden some trifle.

DEATH OF Mrs. Judith Walker.

Samuel Tuel, of Mattingly, has received news of the death of his mother, Mrs. Judith Walker, at her home near Madison Lodge, Kan. Mrs. Walker died April 6 at the age of eighty-three. She was a native of Breckenridge county and was united with the Cloverport Baptist church in 1841. In 1847 she moved to Kansas with her husband and settled in Barber county.

Mrs. Walker's maiden name was Judith Compton. In 1852 she was married to Thos. Levy Taul, two children, Samuel and W. B. Taul, being the results of this union. In 1845 she married R. B. Walker, by whom she had six children, H. C., Thos., Lizzie, Geo. John Allen (dead) and Chas. Walker. Chas. Walker lives in Idaho and the other children and their father live in Kansas. B-sides her immediate family she had thirty-four grand children and thirty grand-grandchildren.

Made Young Again.

"One of Dr. King's New Life Pills each night for two weeks has put me in my 'teens' again," writes D. H. Turner of Dampscroft, Pa. "They're the best in the world for Liver, Stomach and Bowels. Purely vegetable. Never gripe. Only 35c at short & Haynes."

Starts Mussel Shell Fleet.

W. B. Phelps started his fleet of mussel shell boats on the Ohio river last week. The fishermen are dragging the same beds as last year, but the supply at this point seems good to last for some time yet. Mr. Phelps operates from fifteen to twenty-five boats and employs about that many men when the mussel shell business is at its best which is generally along in the summer.

DRURY'S BREEDING STOCK!

DENMARK DARE

—1340 N. S. H. R.—

DESCRIPTION AND PEDIGREE:

Denmark Dare is a blood bay stallion, foaled May 1896. Sire, Chester Dare 10, by Black Squirrel 58; dam Mollie, by Rolla Denmark; he by Star Denmark 71, 2nd dam by Jno. Akin.

Mr. J. V. Boyd, of Shelbyville, Ky., his former owner and one of the best saddle horse breeders in the state, describes him thus: "Denmark Dare is 16 hands high, weight 1,200 lbs., beautiful head, good neck, the best back you ever saw on a horse, good legs, fine mane and tail and carries tail right. This horse goes all the gaits fast and right." He is also a high school horse and the best broke stallion in the country. Standard and registered.

This horse will be found at my stable one mile east of Bewleyville on Louisville road and will be permitted to serve mares at $10.00 for colts that stand up and suck. While Denmark Dare is but a youngster, he has made a reputation that would do credit to any living stallion as a sire and we kindly invite our friends and patrons to call and inspect him. You must see him to appreciate his greatness.

BEN. This famous Washington county Jack for utility mules will be found at the above mentioned place where he will be ready for service at $10.00 for a colt that stands up and sucks. BEN is 15 hands high, black, with the best bone ever saw on anybody's Jack and has proved himself to be a great breeder.

To the get of DENMARK DARE I will give a premium of $12.00 for the best general purpose colt. To the get of BEN I will give $10.00 for the mule colt worth the most money.

A few mares from a distance kept on grass at $1.50 per month. Accidents at owner's risk. Thanking you for past patronage and hoping for a continuance of same, I am, Respectfully,

CHAS. H. DRURY, Bewleyville, Ky.
